3. List of Required Journals

Past seven years of journal articles in print prior to January 1 of the year of the examination. Date of e-publication is irrelevant. Example: The hard copy publication dates covered on the exam range from January 1, 2015 to December 31, 2021. (Note: Beginning with journal publication dates of January 1, 2015 and later, no questions on the Written examination will be derived from case reports that involve single animals. Review of images in these case reports is recommended for Image Recognition exam preparation.)

3.1 Essential Veterinary Journals

The large majority of questions for the written examination will be derived from these journals.

- (1) Veterinary Ophthalmology
- (2) American Journal of Veterinary Research*
- (3) Equine Veterinary Journal*
- (4) Journal of Small Animal Practice*
- (5) Journal of the American Animal Hospital Association*
- (6) Journal of the American Veterinary Medical Association*
- (7) Veterinary Clinics of North America*
- (8) Veterinary Pathology*
- (9) Veterinary Record*
- (10) Veterinary Surgery*
- (11) Journal of Veterinary Internal Medicine*
- (12) Veterinary Immunology and Immunopathology*

(Note*: Articles from these veterinary journals should be reviewed for any situation or disease that involves ocular, periocular, or neuro-ophthalmic structures or systemic conditions relevant to ophthalmic disease.)

3.2 Human Journals

Questions derived from pertinent articles* from these journals may occur infrequently on the Written examination):

- (1) Current Eye Research
- (2) Experimental Eye Research
- (3) Graefe's Archives for Clinical and Experimental Ophthalmology
- (4) Investigative Ophthalmology and Visual Science
- (5) Journal of Ocular Pharmacology and Therapeutics

(*Note: Review of basic science, human clinical and other veterinary specialty journals should be limited to those articles dealing with situations or diseases directly applicable to veterinary ophthalmology (eg. where a common domestic animal is used as an animal model). Review of human clinical conditions or basic science articles unrelated to veterinary ophthalmology is not necessary for exam preparation.)
